

Spelling Words: December 1, 2014

1. mourner n.-express sadness at somebody's death
2. bedlam n.-chaos (a place or situation full of noise, frenzied activity, and confusion)
3. melancholy adj.-feeling; causing sadness, gloomy character
4. specter n.-ghostly presence or threat of something unpleasant
5. tumult n. -noisy commotion or agitation
6. pinioned v.-restrain someone or prevent from flying
7. scabbard n.-1. A sheath for a sword, belt, or dagger that hangs from a belt 2. scabbarded v.-put the weapon into a sheath
8. precepts n.-1. A rule, instruction or principle that guides somebody's actions, especially one that guides moral behavior. 2. A warrant or writ that issued by a legal authority.
9. entreaty n.-a serious and passionate request or desperate plea
10. earnest adj.-1. serious and solemn (intensely or excessively serious and grave manner or attitude) Done in a deeply sincere way. 2. earnest n.-a down payment (a small payment that confirms a contract).
11. unanimity n.-100% agreement, a view shared by all of the people concerned with nobody disagreeing

Spelling Words: December 1, 2014

1. mourner n.-express sadness at somebody's death
2. bedlam n.-chaos (a place or situation full of noise, frenzied activity, and confusion)
3. melancholy adj.-feeling; causing sadness, gloomy character
4. specter n.-ghostly presence or threat of something unpleasant
5. tumult n. -noisy commotion or agitation
6. pinioned v.-restrain someone or prevent from flying
7. scabbard n.-1. A sheath for a sword, belt, or dagger that hangs from a belt 2. scabbarded v.-put the weapon into a sheath
8. precepts n.-1. A rule, instruction or principle that guides somebody's actions, especially one that guides moral behavior. 2. A warrant or writ that issued by a legal authority.
9. entreaty n.-a serious and passionate request or desperate plea
10. earnest adj.-1. serious and solemn (intensely or excessively serious and grave manner or attitude) Done in a deeply sincere way. 2. earnest n.-a down payment (a small payment that confirms a contract).
11. unanimity n.-100% agreement, a view shared by all of the people concerned with nobody disagreeing

Spelling Words: December 1, 2014

1. mourner n.-express sadness at somebody's death
2. bedlam n.-chaos (a place or situation full of noise, frenzied activity, and confusion)
3. melancholy adj.-feeling; causing sadness, gloomy character
4. specter n.-ghostly presence or threat of something unpleasant
5. tumult n. -noisy commotion or agitation
6. pinioned v.-restrain someone or prevent from flying
7. scabbard n.-1. A sheath for a sword, belt, or dagger that hangs from a belt 2. scabbarded v.-put the weapon into a sheath
8. precepts n.-1. A rule, instruction or principle that guides somebody's actions, especially one that guides moral behavior. 2. A warrant or writ that issued by a legal authority.
9. entreaty n.-a serious and passionate request or desperate plea
10. earnest adj.-1. serious and solemn (intensely or excessively serious and grave manner or attitude) Done in a deeply sincere way. 2. earnest n.-a down payment (a small payment that confirms a contract).
11. unanimity n.-100% agreement, a view shared by all of the people concerned with nobody disagreeing

